2.1 Councilor Updates (5 minutes)

Update from Councillor Janz::

Mayor Sohi and the Community and Public Services Committee directed that exercising rights of protest on City lands should not require a pre-issued permit in Edmonton. An amendment to clarify the intent was prepared and adopted into the final version of the Public Spaces Bylaw recognizing that the bylaw would not be applied or interpreted to prevent the exercise of fundamental freedoms, which are those listed in s. 2 of the Charter. The City of Edmonton does not - practically or legally - require that organizers or attendees obtain a City-issued permit to engage in peaceful protest.

I also will be requesting a list of the cold weather supports available (including the warming bus) and the other supports available for vulnerable folks. There are also subsequent motions regarding reporting data on the fines and enforcement provisions, which I think will actually better accomplish the youth council's concerns than police involvement.

Edmonton Centre-MLA David Shepherd created a very useful toolkit of seven actions that must be taken by the Government of Alberta to make a tangible difference in our communities today:

3.0 Presentation Equitable Recreation Programming Audit

3.1 The Office of the City Auditor conducted an Equitable Recreation Programming Audit in June 2024. The report identified that the Community Recreation and Culture Branch needs an effective approach to planning and providing equitable recreation programming for all Edmontonians. The report made four recommendations:

- Recommendation 1: Improve information gathering on recreation programming needs to identify access barriers and inform equitable program planning. (by March 31, 2025)
- Recommendation 2: Develop and implement an integrated plan to support equitable recreation programming. (by March 31, 2026)
- Recommendation 3: Develop equity objectives for each major programming area to assess effectiveness and identify areas for improvement. (by June 30, 2026)
- Recommendation 4: Develop documented guidance for staff to ensure equitable, inclusive, and accessible recreation programming. (by September 30, 2026)

The staff leading recommendation 2 would like to share with you a bit about the work, and get some preliminary input on the vision for the integrated plan for equity.
