A Bird Friendly City like Edmonton needs an official Bird. Who will it be?

Join Bird Friendly Edmonton for a battle of laughs and evening of bird puns! Moderated by Belinda Cornish, an Edmonton based award-winning playwright, this event is bound to be a lively debate of sharply crafted comedic arguments and humorous avian related ad libs as three passionate bird enthusiasts debate for who they think should be the top bird in the Edmonton City Bird Vote.

Who will the audience choose as the night's winner? Will it be...

Nature Nick, defender of the clever magpie,

The Nature Nut who is speaking up for the gentle and shy Boreal Chickadee, or Whitemud Wayne, defender of the regal Blue Jay!

Audience members are encouraged to come ready for fun and dress up in the colours of their favorite bird.
