

Infill Infrastructure Fund Status

Below is a map of all projects that have completed the application process and for which IIF funds have been allocated. Each project has been assigned a project number on the map based on the funding allocation date. The same number is reflected in the information in the dashboard on the following page.

The dashboard below shows total funding allocation, remaining funding, funding by infrastructure type as well as the number of units supported (total and per project).

