Applicant Eligibility

The Surplus School Site Program is open to non-profit organizations, for-profit entities and partnerships between non-profits and for-profit entities that demonstrate they meet the mandatory minimum requirements.

- Competence to complete and operate the proposed development.
- Financial soundness, including:
 - Financial management to complete the development and provide housing operations;
 - Capacity to handle development risks (i.e. cost overruns, delays);
 - Demonstrate that the organization is financially stable enough to meet its obligations and continue its business for the sustainable future.

Additional consideration will be given to proposals led by or that include the participation of Indigenous organizations (or their affiliates) that have current Memorandums of Understanding or Letters of Intent to work collaboratively on Housing initiatives with the City of Edmonton.

Application Submission Requirements for Affordable Housing / Mixed-Income Developments

Each application package should contain the following supporting information in order to be deemed complete. Incomplete application may not be considered.

- Applicant Information
- Proposed Development Information
- Site Plan
- Communication and Engagement Approach

In order to assist applicants, the Surplus School Site Program Guide has been created to provide pertinent details related to the City's capital contributions towards development of these lands.

All applicants are directed to review Appendix 2 of the Program Guide as it details the submission requirements for this and any other surplus school site. Appendix 1 has been created to aid applicants as a checklist in the preparation of their submissions.

All submissions are to be sent to propertysales@edmonton.ca in a PDF format with the Email Subject Line "Surplus School Sites - Submission".

All applicants are encouraged to meet with a City housing representative if they have any questions regarding submission requirements or site development considerations.

Agreement Terms and Conditions

Any agreement(s) are subject to approval of the Branch Manager of Real Estate, Financial and Corporate Services, Executive Committee of City Council and/or City Council.

1. The Agreement(s) will be conditional on, among other things, the application and approval of a development and building permit in alignment with the development timeline.
 2. Successful applications will be expected to meet the Energy Efficiency requirements outlined in the Surplus School Site Program Guide, and abide by City Policy C672 – Climate Resilience, if applicable.
 3. If the successful applicant proposed to purchase the site, they will be required to enter into a Sale and Development Agreement and a Buy Back Option Agreement for the Development. If the successful applicant proposes to lease the site, they will be required to enter into a Lease Agreement.
 4. Mixed-income housing is defined as affordable housing that meets the City's Maximum Allowable Rental Rates \(MARR\) requirements and includes market housing on the same site or portfolio of sites. The successful applicant will be required to enter into an Affordable Housing and Grant Funding Agreement, which may be registered on title to ensure the affordable housing / mixed-income component of the development is maintained throughout the agreed term. The development must remain affordable for a minimum of 25 years, to a maximum of 40 years on a land sale or up to a 99 years under a land lease.
- Despite the above terms and conditions, proposed developments with a longer affordability term are preferred. Applicants can state their preference for a land lease versus a land sale in their proposal.
5. The information contained herein is believed to be true, but does not constitute a contract. Applicants should verify all information to their own satisfaction. Price, terms and conditions are subject to change within notice. GST is not included in price.
 6. The successful applicant must notify the community league and/or Homeowners' Association of its proposed development plans and provide members of the community an opportunity to comment on the proposed development.
 7. The site is being sold/leased on a strictly as is, where is basis. Any representations or information regarding the size, configuration, dimensions, zoning, utility services, environmental quality/liability, soil conditions or developability with respect to the site are taken and relied upon at the applicant's sole risk; the applicant has an obligation to ascertain the accuracy of all such information.
 8. The City is soliciting proposals on each site or on a portfolio of sites. The sales listings will be open until at least January 31, 2025. All submissions should be emailed to:
propertysales@edmonton.ca
Email Subject Line: Surplus School Sites – Submission
- APPLICANTS SHOULD SEND THEIR SUBMISSION IN PDF FORMAT. ALL SUBMISSIONS SHOULD MEET THE REQUIREMENTS OUTLINED IN APPENDIX #1 & APPENDIX #2 OF THE SURPLUS SCHOOL SITE PROGRAM GUIDE.

Cost of Submission of Proposals

The preparation and submission of, and all discussions or other proceedings relating to, a submission will be conducted at the sole cost of the Applicant. The City will not be responsible for any costs incurred by an Applicant in the preparation or submission, including any costs incurred by the Applicant to attend meetings or make presentations relating to its submission, or in any participation of the Applicant in negotiations or finalization of the Sale Agreement, Lease and/or Affordable Housing Agreement, as applicable.
