The Polar Extremes area has an exhibit called Arctic Shores where I may see seals and sea lions.

The Arctic Shores area includes statues of sea lions that I can touch. They are not real, and cannot hurt me.

Arctic Shores also has a play area that looks like whale bones, I can play here if I want to.

I can use the steps to see the seal enclosure or I can use the walkway around the other side. (This area is currently under construction)

I may see harbour seals and fur seals inside their building by looking through the window. The seals may also be swimming in their large outdoor pool. The large outdoor pool is currently under construction.

The Wildlife Amphitheatre hosts shows and talks during special events all year.
