

NEIGHBOURHOOD DESCRIPTION

Fulton Place, located adjacent to Fulton Ravine, offers residents easy access to the North Saskatchewan River Valley system as well as scenic views from vantage points located along Fulton Drive. A number of recreational facilities are available in the neighbourhood, as well as three parks, two schools, several churches, and a community league facility. A small number of businesses serve local residents and a wider range of goods and services are available in the nearby Capilano Mall.

Fulton Place was annexed to the City of Edmonton in 1954. Most of the residential land in Fulton Place was developed during the 1950s. Single detached homes account for most of the total dwelling units within the neighbourhood, while low rise apartments and semi-detached homes make up the remainder.

Fulton Place is named after Fulton Creek, which runs through the ravine on the west boundary. The neighbourhood extends eastward to 50 Street and lies between 101 Avenue and 106 Avenue.
