Society Assembles at the Macdonald to Commemorate The Festival of Hallowe'en

One of the smartest and most brilliant functions since the Prince's ball was the Hallowe'en dance at the Macdonald Friday night, given under the auspices of the First Canadian Contingent and the Major Pete Anderson chapters of the Independent Order of the Daughters of the Empire. Society in all its glory tripped through a very fine program of excellent dances, the music of which was supplied by the Macdonald trio, augmented by a drummer and a trombonist.

The decorations were especially attractive. Wide crepe paper with the emblems or symbols of the season made a dado above the wainscotting of the dining room of the hotel, where the dance was held. Fringed streamers of black and yellow were fastened to the large electrolights in the centre, and draped to the sides of the room. All the side lights were shaded with effective arrangements of crepe paper with witches and cats thereon. Fully three hundred and fifty people thronged the ball room and corridors, enjoying one of the happiest of evenings.

The supper was delicious, and nicely served on the mezzanine floor. Some of the officers of the chapters in charge of the successful affair were: Miss Marjorie Campbell, Mrs. Walter B. Laidlaw, Miss Cauchon, Miss Jean Turnbull, Mrs. Donald Brown, Miss Etta Manuel, Miss Eleanor Driscoll, Miss Marjorie Stocks, Miss Mary Reid, Miss Olga Kirkpatrick.

Mrs. R. G. Brett and her niece, Miss Hungerford, from Government House, attended by Major Stafford, A.D.C., graced the party with their presence.

Everything for the comfort and the entertainment of the guests was carefully done, and congratulatory remarks were on every lip for the delightful event. Truly, Hallowe'en was thoroughly celebrated by the smart set of Edmonton. The gowns of the ladies were very beautiful, and of the latest texture and mode. A few of those noticed were:
