Expiry Date - May 1, 2018

This certificate of licence exemption is a temporary exemption from licence application requirements that apply to builders after December 1, 2017. It is granted to builders who have registered at least two new homes in Alberta over the past two years and are in good standing, in accordance with section 14.2 (1) of the New Home Buyer Protection (General) Regulation. This exemption under subsection (2) expires on May 1, 2018 or upon the issuance of a Builder Licence.

Issued on December 1, 2017

Registrar of the New Home Buyer Protection Act

As of the date of issuance, this Certificate of Licence Exemption is evidence that the Certificate holder has met the requirements to hold an exemption as determined by the Registrar of the New Home Buyer Protection Act. This certificate is subject to verification by the Registrar on request, and can be found online, and may be cancelled, or made subject to conditions at any time.
